

Q. NLH-94 CA (Re: Table, page 15)

Please explain why the employee benefits component of the capital structure is treated as part of the equity.

A. The employee benefits are not external debt. The deemed capital structure with 60% external debt would be financially viable and has been used for the purpose of deeming the capital structure.