

In reference to Schedule “B”, page 70 of 82, Customer Service System Study:

Q. Please advise if warranties were in place when the system was purchased.

A. The CSS was not purchased. The system was developed by Newfoundland Power with project management and development assistance from external consultants, and there were no warranties associated with the system.