

In reference to Schedule “B”, page 71 of 82, Facilities Management, project cost $562,000:

Q. What employees are responsible for tracking and scheduling the above at the present time?

A. Primary responsibility for the scheduling and tracking of substation and generation equipment maintenance rests with the Company’s Superintendent, Generation and Superintendent, Electrical Engineering. They are supported in this role by the Plant Maintenance and Electrical Maintenance Supervisors.

Primary responsibility for the scheduling of distribution equipment maintenance rests with the Superintendents, Regional Operations. Day-to-day scheduling of distribution maintenance duties is the responsibility of General Forepersons.