4   Q.   In reference to "monitoring and security software", please advise as to who will be
5   providing training/consulting and at what cost.
6
7   A.   The decision as to who will provide training and consulting services will be determined
8   once the software vendor recommended to supply the monitoring and security software is 9   selected. If there is more than one qualified supplier of the required training and 10   consulting services, the Company will issue a request for proposals for provision of the 11   services.
13   The cost of these services is estimated at $50,000.
