

General

Q. Ref: PUB-40 NP (B-34 Extensions). Provide a breakdown between the project costs for new customers versus upgrades to existing lines to accommodate increased load?

A. In preparing its annual capital expenditure budget for the Extensions category, the Company does not make a distinction between expenditures required for extensions to serve new customers versus upgrading existing lines to accommodate increased load. Similarly, the Company does not track actual costs in this manner.