

1. Project Management Improvements

Q. What types of Project Management training does NF Power provide to its Project Managers?

A. The Company provides its Project Managers with training on project management concepts, methods and tools. This includes the Masters Certificate in Project Management program offered by the Centre for Management Development at Memorial University of Newfoundland and Microsoft Project application training.