

1 Q. What is the magnitude of excess energy that could be expected from an individual
2 participant given the limits placed on the size of the installation?

3

4

5 A. The magnitude of excess energy from an individual participant in a month can vary
6 materially depending on the seasonal nature of a customer's energy requirements
7 and generation output. As a result, an estimate cannot practically be given.