

1 Q: Re: Brattle Group Report, page 36.

2

3

Citation:

4

5

Option A: Be financially responsible for the network upgrades that exceed the customers' anticipated revenues over some fixed period and providing security equal to the anticipated revenues.

6

7

8

9

Preamble:

10

11

The following alternate wording for Option A may more clearly express the Brattle Group's proposal:

12

13

14

Be Taking financially responsibleility for the costs of network upgrades that exceed the customers' Hydro's anticipated revenues from the new customer for transmission service over some fixed period, and providing security equal to the anticipated revenues.

15

16

17

18

19

Does the Brattle Group agree with the proposed alternate wording?

20

21

A. The modified text reads: "Taking financial responsibility for the costs of network upgrades that exceed Hydro's anticipated revenues from the new customer for transmission service over some fixed period, and providing security equal to the anticipated revenues."

22

23

24

25

26

This revised text generally conveys the same concept except that the revised text applies to only "new customers" while the original text is inclusive of new customers and existing customers with load additions exceeding a size threshold.

27

28