

1 Q. With regards to the answer given for CA-NP-10 (c):

2
3 (a) Please indicate what is confidential to the operations of Newfoundland Power
4 in the RBC Capital markets weekly credit analysis and indicative new issue
5 pricing?

6
7 (b) Please confirm that RBC Capital markets has requested that historical
8 editions of the above publication, which is widely available to institutional
9 clients, not be released.

10
11 (c) Please indicate whether the publication will be released on a confidential
12 basis provided that it is used only to check historic spread behaviour.

13
14 A. (a) The publications were provided by RBC Capital Markets to Newfoundland Power
15 on a confidential basis and are plainly market Strictly Private and Confidential.

16
17 (b) Newfoundland Power is not aware of the availability of the documents. Each
18 document carries the plain endorsement Strictly Private and Confidential. Given
19 the timelines for response to Requests for Information, Newfoundland Power did
20 not seek any confirmation from RBC Capital Markets concerning public
21 disclosure of these documents. Newfoundland Power took the practical approach
22 of making the documents available to regulatory intervenors via the Company's 23 stranded website but not placing them on the public record.

24
25 (c) The publications have been provided to regulatory intervenors in this proceeding
26 on a confidential basis, for the purposes of the proceeding via the Company's 27 stranded website.