

Q. Re Purchase Vehicles and Aerial Devices

Does NP purchase new previous years' models when replacing vehicles in its fleet?

A. No. Newfoundland Power vehicle purchases are typically factory ordered current year vehicles meeting our specification and color requirements. The Company receives significant discounts under vehicle manufacturers' fleet discount programs. Our purchase costs are typically below retail market even when considering previous model year units.