

1 Q. Reference Mr. Brockman’s evidence, page 5, lines 7-9 and related footnote 7. Please
2 indicate where on pages 59 and 62 of the Board’s 1993 COS report the Board
3 indicates that “the customer impact of cost of service allocations is more properly 4 addressed as a rate design issue”, when not in the context of the subsequent matter
5 of rate shock implications.

6
7 A. The reference to the 1993 COS report cited in the question refers to the Board’s
8 recommendation that the possible rate shock implications of the rural deficit allocation
9 methodology be considered separately from the choice of allocation methodology. The 10 Board’s recommendation is consistent with Mr. Brockman’s view that rate shock is a rate 11 design issue.
