

1     Q.     The last paragraph on Page 26 of 53 of NP-NLH-024, Attachment 1 (Nalcor
2           Intercompany Review), states:
3           “As Nalcor continues to evolve its services, there may be opportunities to
4           implement alternative allocation models to attribute costs to other drivers as well
5           as reduce calculation efforts in determining allocations.”
6           Since the Nalcor Intercompany Review was finalized on June 6, 2012, has
7           Nalcor/Hydro revisited its shared services allocations?
8
9

10    A.     The allocation method and models have not been revised since the Intercompany
11           Review was finalized.
