

1     Q.     2013 General Rate Application, Cost of Service

2             Provide a detailed description of the zero intercept analysis used for the proration
3             between demand and customer of Poles, Pole Attachments, Land, Primary,
4             Submarine and Secondary Conductors, and Transformers. Include copies of all 5             reports and/or studies performed to develop the zero intercept values used for 6             proration as well as all data, workpapers, documents and calculations used to 7             develop the zero intercept values and prorations in Excel format with all links and 8             formulas intact.

9

10

11    A.     Please see Hydro's response to PUB-NLH-127.