

1 Q. Reference: Rate Schedule, Section E: RSP Surplus, section 2.1 page 16 of 47

2 In the “Phase-In Industrial Customer Rates – September 1, 2015” section, the rules
3 state “At the end of the phase-in period, any remaining balance will be added to the 4 Industrial Customers plan then in effect”. If there is a remaining balance owing to 5 Hydro, over what period of time is Hydro proposing to recover the balance?

8 A. As the remaining balance is proposed to be added to the current plan, the existing
9 RSP adjustment mechanism would result in its refund or recovery over the 12
10 months effective January 1, 2016.
