

1 Q. [Account 365] – Please segregate the book salvage analysis set forth on page B-25 of
2 the Gannett Fleming study between overhead and underground services.

3
4 A. The Company does not have the information required to break out the salvage analysis on
5 page B-25 of the Gannett Fleming study between overhead and underground services.

6
7 While the vast majority of the services relate to overhead, the specific details on 8 retirements, costs of removal and gross salvage has historically not been tracked
9 separately for the different service types.
