2 review the same information and present differing depreciation parameters
3 that could both be considered as a reasonable expectation of the average 4 service life characteristics?

5 RESPONSE: Yes, Ms. Lee would view that two fully qualified depreciation experts could review 6 the same information and present differing depreciation parameters that could 7 both be considered as reasonable. Ms. Lee qualifies this response by the 8 assumption that the exact same information is reviewed by both experts.
