Q: Reference: Page 11, Lines 18-21

Please provide the detailed calculations that support the 2008 forecast T-bill and banker's acceptance rates of 4.5% to 4.7% and the 2008 forecast 30-year bond yields between 4.75% and 5.0%.

A: There are no "detailed calculations" to reveal. The referenced forecasts are those of Dr. Cannon, made at the time he prepared his prefiled evidence, based on the information and published forecasts he discussed in Section II of his evidence.
